Proceedings of the Whig National Convention.

Of course, as we did not hear any except the fag end of Mr. HARLAN's remarks, we cannot pretend to report them; but we gathered from what he said that the fresident had decided Mr. CAMPRELL's resolution to be out of order, from which decision an appeal had been taken, and a motion to lay the appeal on the table was then pending.

As soon as Mr. H. sat down, a dozen gentlemen sprang their teet. Mr. HARNELL of Tenn, succeeded in obtaining the floor, and said: "Mr. Fresident, I desire that he decision of this Chair shall be sustained. I take it for granted that the good sense of this Convention will addres them to proceed as soon as possible to mominate and dates for President and Vice-Fresident of the United

SECOND DAY—EVENING SESSION.

PRILADELIBIA. Thursday evening, June 8.

As our reporters were excluded during the sectet session, we are of course unable to give details of the proceedings. We learn however, that the Convention assembled at 4 o'clock, and that after it was said upon the table by 151 ayes to 111 noes. Gov. Kent of Me. then moved that at 54 o'clock, the Convention should proceed to ballot for candidates for the silice of President of the United States, which was unbegarently modified, on motion of Mr. Ashmun, to 61 o'clock.

A resolution was submitted by Mr. Campull., of Ohio, in reference to the qualifications required in the candidate, which will be found in a subsequent part of our report. When the doors were opened, at 6 o'clock, Mr. Harks Nof Ky, was speaking to the resolution.

He said, "I wish to know if there is any man on the floor who would wish to nominate a man who is not a whole-souled Whig. I do not believe there is therefore I do not see the necessity for any such resolution.

Of course, as we did not hear any except the fag end South Carolina.
